

The Crestwood Parents' Association is pleased to present

Dr. Beverley Freedman

Gender Matters – So What?

The Crestwood Preparatory College Parents Association invites you to a fascinating evening talk "Gender Matters – So What" presented by Dr. Beverley Freedman, a leading educational expert. This presentation will be about the impact of gender on education, how young men and women learn differently, and some strategies to consider.

Dr. Freedman is an educational consultant involved in numerous provincial and national initiatives. She has presented at provincial, national, and international conferences on a wide range of subjects including literacy and gender, boys and achievement, and gender and technology. Dr. Freedman provides consulting work to the Ontario Ministry of Education, Indian and Northern Affairs, Canada, Ontario Teachers Federation, Durham District School Board, and the York University Faculty of Education. She is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Toronto, Institute of Technology. In 2001, Dr. Freedman was named Ontario's Distinguished Leader by Ontario's provincial superintendents' organization. She won the Barb Phair Award from the Council for Exceptional Children.

Please join us in what will be an enlightening and interesting talk. The presentation will start at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 15, 2010, in the Resource Centre. The regular monthly parent's association meeting will start at 7:00 and end at 8:00.
